

boston

WEEKEND TRAVEL ITINERARY

by The Artful Everyday

eat

Lobster rolls
Oysters
Italian

CAFES

Caffe Vittoria
Caffe Paradiso

BRUNCH/LUNCH

Dig Inn
Tatte Bakery
Eataly

DINNER

Giacomo's Ristorante

CANNOLI

Modern Pastry
Mike's Pastry

do

Harborwalk
Freedom trail
JFK Presidential Library and Museum
Museum of Fine Arts
Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
Gibson House Museum
Peabody Essex Museum
Shop in Beacon Hill
Shop in Back Bay/Newbury Street

see

Boston Public Library
Public Garden
Paul Revere House
Old North Church
King's Chapel
Quincy Market
The New England Holocaust Memorial
Beacon Hill, Chestnut and Acorn Street
Castle Island/Fort Independence
Harvard
Charles River

NEIGHBORHOODS TO HIT

Little Italy/North End
Downtown
Beacon Hill
Back Bay

friday

Walk through Public Garden and Boston

Common to Back Bay

Lunch in Back Bay at Eataly

Gibson House Museum

Museum of Fine Arts, espresso at the cafe

Back to hostel for check-in, freshen up

Dinner in North End at Giacomo's

Ristorante (cash only)

Mike's Pastry for a cannoli

Limoncello at Caffè Paradiso

saturday

Grab coffee

Freedom Trail

King's Chapel

Paul Revere Mall

Paul Revere House

Old North Church

Stop for an oyster at the market

Guinness at Hennessy's Irish Pub (voted Best in Boston)

See the Holocaust memorial (right outside the pub)

Quincy Market/Faneuil Hall

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum

Gelato at Amorino

Dinner in North End

Modern Pastry for cannoli

sunday

Brunch at Tatte Bakery (get the avo toast it's out of this world)

JFK Presidential Library and Museum

Beacon Hill, see Acorn Street

Go inside Boston Public Library

Last stroll on Commonwealth Avenue Mall